Luxuriant Porcelain Surfaces

About us

A Sustainable High – End Porcelain Surface Depicting the Best of Its Nature

What we call a revolution in the recent times, PORCEKO, was ignited in our minds way back when the culture of large format slabs was invented in the industry. We became fascinated by the idea of discovering and celebrating the extraordinary of every space and surface around us. With breakthrough research and findings, PORCEKO aims in imparting an alluring effect in the form of exclusive, and yet handy patterns and designs, one could easily catch up with. We persevere to develop and deliver something truly unique and relevant at your doorstep, with the purpose of giving a sense of clarity and satisfaction to maybe not whole, and a niche only, who would welcome with happy minds and understanding hearts.

Caring about our well-being should be one of the most important practices for a long, happy and healthy life, and we care about your well-being. It is said that charity begins at home, and so is hygiene, that starts with you and us. Bringing in an innovation with the new "CoverX Technology", we have developed a technique to create a pure environment for you – a fit and healthy immune system for all.

The new "CoverX Technology" is designed to enable the product surface not to absorb any liquid spread on it, called as Spill Proof Surface. The specially crafted technique, protects the surface from any harmful organisms or unwanted bacteria to grow or live on it. Ensuring maximum safety and minimum maintenance efforts, we have put in and will always give our greatest attempt to develop a product technology with a higher shield and increased protection – Making your health and safety a first priority always.
